

11th EUROPEAN BIENNIAL COMPETITION FOR GRAPHIC ART

An initiative of ROTARIALE VZW in cooperation with the MUNICIPAL MUSEUMS OF BRUGES

Rules of the biennial graphic print competition

Article 1

The biennial competition for graphic art is organised by the non-profit organisation VZW ROTARIALE to promote graphic arts and is addressed to graphic artists. Theme of the 2007 competition and the following exhibition is "lace and lace making". The rules (this document) and the registration form may be obtained from ROTARIALE VZW, P/A CROWNE PLAZA, BURG 10, B-8000 BRUGGE, BELGIUM and on the Internet site www.graphicartes.be.

Article 2 – participation

Any resident of a member-state of the European Union can participate for free. The competition is open to all reproducible graphic techniques with the exception of pure photography. Entries should not have been awarded on earlier occasions, nor have been created before 2004. The surface of the actual work may not exceed 2,00 m².

Article 3 – pre selection

The participant delivers a photo dossier between 30 September 2006 and 31 January 2007. The dossier contains a maximum of three clear colour or black-and-white pictures of three creations according to the competition theme. The pictures are in minimum 13x18cm and maximum 20x30cm formats. On the back of the pictures, the participant's name and address, the title of the work and its dimensions are to be mentioned. The dossiers are to be completed with the registration form and a recent participants' curriculum vitae and delivered to ROTARIALE VZW, P/A. H. MAERTENS, PASTORIESTRAT 41, B-8200 BRUGGE, BELGIUM. These dossiers will not be sent back to the participants. They will allow the commission of selection to make a selection of entries to be exhibited.

Article 4 – selection

The creator of selected works will be invited in written before 15 february 2007 to deliver his selected works. The works can either be sent to ROTARIALE VZW, P/A. ARENTSHUIS MUSEUM, DYVER 16, BRUGGE, BELGIUM were they have to arrive before 1 april 2007, or be delivered at the same address on 3 and 4 April 2007 between 10 AM and 5 PM.

Article 5 – Jury and exhibition

The submitted works shall be judged by an international jury, presided by the direction of the MUNICIPAL MUSEUMS OF BRUGES. Prizes will be awarded to three works: a first prize of 2,500 €, a second prize of 1,000 € and a third prize of 750 €. The jury can decide not to expose one or more of the artists' selected works. In this case, the jury will motivate its decision to the artist, in response to his request. The names of the winning artists will be made public at the prize-giving ceremony, to be organised on 7 June 2007.

The framing of the selected works will be done under direction of the staff of the MUNICIPAL MUSEUMS OF BRUGES. The latter may decide to reframe originally framed works at own expenses, as long as these frames are not integrated part of the work. The exhibition is accessible to the public in the ARENTSHUIS MUSEUM IN BRUGES from 7 June until 2 september 2007 (see the museum's opening hours on the site www.brugge.be/musea/en/mbrae.htm).

Article 6 – auction and sale

The VZW ROTARIALE will auction or sell the works after the exhibition, as long as the artist has agreed with the sale of his works. The artist states the price for each work and is entitled to yield 2/3 of the revenues, the remaining 1/3 are being reserved for the social fund of ROTARY CLUB BRUGGE 'T VRIJE. The VZW ROTARIALE can decide not to sell or auction one or more of the artists' works. In this case, the VZW ROTARIALE will motivate its decision in written to the artist, in response to his request. The artist will receive the settlement of his accounts by 31 October 2007.

Article 7

The artist will be invited to recollect his unsold work during the month of September 2007.
