

International Exhibition of Mini Prints Tetovo 2003

Description : Museum of Tetovo area -Tetovo, Republic of Macedonia, organizes the First International Exhibition of Mini Prints Tetovo 2003 . The main aim of this biennale is artist's friendship all over the world to continue.

And this time the tradition decrees to discover the nature of universal values of the artistic creation. The globalization, which through the tendencies of creating huge economic markets and megalopolises, is limiting the human individuality. The man of globalization is rushing into the constant fight for the individual creation. The human individuality is put into the mechanism of the big companies and is subordinated to the profit.

This is a period of abandoning today's values of the creating process and establishing new standards. With your participation you will help a lot this exhibition to continue.

Working title of this second Tetovo Biennale is ENTER In live city EXIT The exhibition opens 04.12.2003 and will last until 31.12.2003, and will be held in the Art Gallery in the House of Culture in Tetovo.

The signed works should be sent before 15.10.2003. The prints will be evaluated from the International Jury consisting of five members.

The organizer will overtake the responsibility to make the catalogue and CD which will be submitted to every participant on this exhibition. The same Jury will select winning prints that will be purchased. The selected artists will be invited to have a personal exhibition of mini prints and at the same time he/she will be the member of the International Jury during the year of 2005. There will be more prizes. All works will be handled with maximum care and respect.
